STOICAL RED SKINS.

A BATCH OF THEM SENT TO JAIL FOR WHISKY SELLING.

Nineteen Indians Pleaded Guilty to Introducing Whisky in the Indian Country. Ten Sentenced to Thirty Days Imprisonment in the Federal Jail.

Nineteen full blood Indians, painted and blanketed, visited the capital city yesterday. Not of their own volition did they come to Guthrie, but the trip was made through the urgent request of Deputy United States Marshal Lilley and possemen. The braves came from the Osage country, where they were arrested on the charge of selling and introducing spirituous and vicious liquors into the land where Uncle Sam has said no intoxicating liquors must be allowed.

The Indians were arraigned before United States Commissioner Goodrich and Thomas, who bound them over to court. The prisoners gave their names as follows: John Plummer, Frank Gates, Sam-m-ha, Andrew John Wasashu, Mosier, Has-sku-ha, Clem Maure, Big Elk, One Foot, John McLaughlin, John H. Hayton, Mek Weiberly, Laben Miles, Rignall Webster, Ho-ho-n-y-eye, Se-mal-ha, Male Horse. In court all the prisoners pleaded guilty to the charges against them. Ten were sent to jail and the remainder gave bonds.

Big Elk was accosted by a LEADER and asked to say something of the whisky selling practice in the Osage country. But the old fellow shook his head, muttered an "ugh," and wrapping his blanket closer around his shaggy form, strode down the street in search of excitement.

THE GOVERNMENT RESERVE.

Commissioner Lammox's Telegram to Governor Swiftford.

The following telegram explains itself as it pertains to the occupants of the government reserve:

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 28, 1893. To A. J. Swiftford, Wharton, O. T.: The civil authorities and courts are parties to apply to, as I have no jurisdiction over matters at present. The government here we have control of, but the court house reserve is a part of the townsite and for public purposes, and the civil authorities of the town have entire control.

S. W. Lamoreaux,
Com. Gen. Land Office.

PERRY TOWNSITE BOARD.

Will Soon Receive Applications for Lots at Perry.

Colonel A. B. Pitts of the Perry townsite board received a telegram Saturday from Washington saying that the patent of the town would probably be issued next week.

The telegram also instructed him to be prepared to file applications for lots in the new town within the next four days.

LINCOLN COUNTY'S BONDS.

Judge Scott Approves Them and They are Now Ready to Float.

Judge Scott and Mr. Edgar Jones returned last evening from Chandler, where Judge Scott approved the bonds of that county.

The value of the bonds is nearly $27,000.

They are now ready to be placed on the market.

District Court.

Yesterday was demurrer and motion day in court. Eight prisoners from the federal court were sentenced.

In the case of Jones vs. Motley Bros. the suit was dismissed, it not coming under the civil rights bill. Motley Bros. are barbers and refused to break the links of the hair of Jones, who is a dark brown coon.

FEDERAL PRISONERS.

SOLD WHISKY ILLEGALLY IN THE INDIAN COUNTRY.

J. E. Sanford, Brought in From P. County and Jailed for Burglary—Deputy Marshal Lilley's Work.

William Childers and Frank Williams were brought to the city from K county yesterday by Officer Putty. Both are charged with selling booze in violation of the statutes governing the sale of such stuff. They were lodged in the Federal jail.

J. E. Sanford hails from P. county. He was landed in the Federal ion yesterday by an officer from that county on the charge of burglary. The grand jury will attend to his case.

Ten full blood Indians were lodged in jail yesterday on the charge of introducing whisky in the Osage country. They pleaded guilty in district court and were given thirty days each. Deputy Marshal Lilley and posse made the arrests. Lilley generally gets what he goes over.

A special from Mineola, Texas, says: City Marshal Terrell last night arrested a flashily dressed and apparently educated young man, who gives his name as S. S. Hill. Papers were found on him addressed to L. S. Naves of Nashville, Tenn., and also a key to room 139, Oriental hotel of Dallas. He represented himself as a deputy sheriff from Bosque county on his way to Hawkins, in this county, to make an arrest. Hill was in this city the middle of last week. At the booths near Orlando he represented himself as a deputy United States marshal. He is doubtless a confirmed crook.

MUST HAVE BRICK CHIMNEYS.

Chief of the Fire Department Proposes to Enforce the Ordinances.

Fire Chief Taylor and his men propose to enforce the city ordinances so far as they relate to the building of brick chimneys on all houses within the fire limits. Yesterday the chief and his men made the rounds of a few blocks and in a short space of time scared up forty-two persons in the fire limits who were using stovepipe for chimneys.

Chief Taylor has issued the following order:

NOTICE—THE FIRE LIMITS.

All persons living in or occupying buildings within the fire limits who are using stovepipe for chimneys are requested to abandon the same and have built regular brick chimneys, according to the city ordinances. The fire limits are as follows: Santa Fe railroad and Cleveland east to Vine street; south to alley in block 63, East Guthrie; west to east side of lot 18 in block 63; south to Yildas; west to alley in block 64, Guthrie's proper; north to alley; west to railroad right of way. Persons will please attend to this at once, as the fire department will inspect all chimneys. By order chief of the fire department.

A 'POSSUM SPREAD.

Frank Wyatt Entertains His Friends in Royal Style.

An epicurean taste is required to appreciate that common yet rare dish, "possum and sweet taters." Few know the art of catching the opossum and fewer still know how to cook and prepare it for the palate.

Frank Wyatt and assistants have the thing down pat. Frank entertained a number of his friends to a 'possum spread at the Silver Dollar saloon Sunday afternoon. It was a spread royal, and all who partook of the juicy meat loudly made acclaim. Mr. Wyatt is an affable man and he proved a host whose hospitality surged to the front. After the menu was discussed toasts and brilliant repartee followed. It was a jolly occasion and will long be remembered by those who were there.

NEW CORPORATIONS.

Active Settlers' Protective Association Proposes to Settle the Matter.

Three charters were issued from the territorial secretary's office yesterday. They were as follows:

Oklahoma land and colonization society of North End.

Actual settlers' protective association of Oklahoma. No capital (required).

Perry coal and transfer company of Perry. Capital, $125,000.

Wane of the Vampires.

The fakers at 117 Second street are preparing to leave the city. Their lease taken for a week has run out and the police will swoop down upon them for occupation tax. Not over thirty people visited the swindling den yesterday, which is sailing under the name of the Novelty store. This is a rank injustice to Mrs. Ramsey, who conducts the novelty store at 110 East Oklahoma avenue. Throw the scummy fakirs into jail and thereby protect adjacent towns.

Found Dead in Deep Creek.

The body of a man about 25 years of age was found in Deep Creek, in the strip, on the 25th inst. The man evidently had been murdered and thrown in the creek by the parties committing the crime. A bullet hole was in his head just above the left eye. Weights were placed upon the body, presumably to hold it under the water. Nothing was found by which the man could be identified. He was supposed to be a German, and has been dead about two weeks when found.

Perry's First Council.

As stated in Sunday's LEADER the first council of Perry held its opening session at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Lawrence Drake was chosen president pro tem and J. P. McKinnis, clerk pro tem. Mayor Progan delivered an address, but no special business was done save the election of Bill Tilghman as city marshal and the following policemen: First ward, John P. Anderson; Second ward, George H. Mouser; Third ward, George Stormer; Fourth ward, H. S. Muller.

KEEP YOUR EYE ON

THE RACKET STORE.

We are soon to have the largest stock of the kind in the Territory of Oklahoma. They are strangers to you now, but will soon be acquainted with you, and will have anything you call for in their line. PRICES, well, go and see them; you will be surprised. Of course you are not to expect quite as good goods there as from some of those merchants who keep the only first-class goods in Guthrie and own the earth, but see their goods; they will please you. The prices on everything in their store is a temptation. Gentlemen's pleasure, Ladies' joy, Children's delight, Country People's home.

Guthrie can boast of many nest stores where artists are engaged in a ranging fresh goods for the eyes of patrons, but there is one emporium in particular that is deserving of mention. It is the Novelty store of Mrs. Ramsey at 110 East Oklahoma avenue. There one can find everything desired
